Dear Parents / Guardians,

The 2014 Year 5/6 Camp will be a five day, four night educational tour of Canberra with Coaches of Australia, which are fully seat-belted buses, with accommodation at Bush Capital Lodge, a high quality YMCA children’s camp facility.

During their time in Canberra, students will visit a wide range of educational attractions including the Parliament House, Questacon, Australian War Memorial, National Museum of Australia, CSIRO Discovery and the Australian Institute of Sport. These experiences will be engaging, educational, eye opening and inspiring, which will form the basis of valuable work undertaken at school and will provide many opportunities for forming positive relationships between peers and students and teachers.

We will be leaving from Williamstown North Primary School on Monday 28th April at 7:30am and returning to Williamstown North Primary School on Friday 2nd May by approximately 5:30pm.

The total cost of Camp is $595, including a $30 federal government rebate. The cost covers transport by coach to and from Canberra, transport to and from each attraction by coach, an educational tour of each attraction (including entrance fee), accommodation at Bush Capital Lodge where all bedding and linen is provided, all meals and snacks (apart from lunch and snacks on day one) and night entertainment activities.

Camp payments can be made by instalments, or parents can choose to make payment in full.

Payment details are:

- Either, payment in full of $595, or the first instalment of $300 by Friday 7th March (To secure your child’s place at the Camp)
- The second and final payment of $295 by Tuesday 1st April 2014.

Further details of itinerary information, what to take, medical forms, dietary requirements, etc. will be provided at a later date. To enable us to complete our arrangements, we kindly ask you to complete the attached Permission Slip for your child to attend. If you are interested in attending the Camp to assist, please fill out and return the ‘Parent Helpers Expression of Interest’ form.

Please do not hesitate to contact Melissa Brown, or your child’s teacher with any questions or queries. All parents who ‘express an interest’ will be contacted by letter and informed if they have been selected to attend and assist on Camp, or thanked for their offer.

Kind regards,
Year 5/6 teachers
